

“The Role of the Community Promotor in Creating Equity and a Culture of Prevention”

October 6-8, 2022 • Sheraton Gateway, Los Angeles, CA

PARTICIPATE IN OUR Mercadito

El mercadito (small market) is a space that is offered during the conference so that promotores have the opportunity to exhibit and sell their artisanal handicrafts as an opportunity to advance their professional and artistic development.

CATEGORIES OF ARTISANAL HANDICRAFTS:

- ✓ Handmade items/crafts/artwork they made themselves (promotores)
- ✓ Handmade items/crafts/artwork made by other artisans/promotores with the funds raised to support promotores groups and cooperatives.
- ✓ Handmade items/crafts/artworks made by other promotores with the funds benefitting their small business endeavors.

A table at the mercadito for three days is $50 (US)

Your payment must be received no later than September 5, 2022

REQUIREMENTS FOR SELLERS:

- ✓ Be an active promotor in your community.
- ✓ Have registered in the general registration system of the annual conference and have paid before September 5, 2022.
- ✓ Identify your items/crafts/artworks in one of the categories mentioned above.
- ✓ Prefabricated items will not be accepted.
