

Promotoras Scholarship Fund Application

Thank you for your interest in the Promotoras Scholarship Fund application to attend this year's 23rd annual Visión y Compromiso conference on September 24–26, 2025, in Anaheim, CA.

This scholarship fund is designed to support promotoras, community health workers (CHWs), and other community leaders who are experiencing financial hardship and are eager to participate in this impactful event.

If selected, the scholarship may cover: Conference Admission (only) or Conference Admission and Dinner/Dance. Financial assistance for transportation or lodging will not be provided.

This application takes about 20–25 minutes to complete. As part of the application process, you will need to answer a series of questions to help us get to know you, gain insights about your valuable work within the community, and your motivation for attending this conference. In the section “Servicio de Corazón”, you will be given a prompt with questions that will help guide your response. You may choose to write a 1–2 paragraph response, or if you prefer, you will have the option to submit a short 2 minute video response.

Please note that you will not be scored on your grammar. All questions must be answered to be considered eligible for this scholarship opportunity.

IMPORTANT DATES:

- ✓ Application Closes: Wednesday, August 20, 2025, at 11:59 p.m. (Pacific Time)
- ✓ Visión y Compromiso's Scholarship Committee will contact selected applicants by Monday, August 25, 2025, via email.
- ✓ Scholarship Awardees must register by Wednesday, September 3, 2025, the final day of conference registration. Please note that registering by this date is essential to maintain your scholarship status and ensure your admission to the conference.

We look forward to hearing your story and how attending this conference will help you support the community!

APPLY HERE →
https://bit.ly/vyc_psf25

For assistance with completing this application or other application-related questions, please contact annualconference@visionycompromiso.org.